The employee's salary shall be within the established range of the pay grade.
- M. Return to state service.
- 1. The salary of a former state service employee who is reinstated or reemployed in state service may:

If the decrease in the employee's salary is less than the entrance salary or greater than the maximum salary of the new pay grade, the employee's salary shall then be within the range of the new pay grade.
- 3. An employee promoted within one year to the immediately prior class shall be paid the same salary as that paid before the voluntary pay grade decrease to the class at the lower pay grade plus the percentage or dollar amount of increase of an intervening general salary adjustment or special market adjustment for which the employee is eligible, and the dollar amount of a performance increase that the employee received at the lower pay grade.

R2-5-305. Overtime Pay and Compensatory Leave

A. Approval of overtime work. An agency head may require that an employee work overtime and:

- 1. Shall approve in advance all work in excess of 40 hours per workweek or in excess of a work period as defined by the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA); 29 U.S.C. 203, August 1998, published by the U.S. Government Printing Office Superintendent of Documents, Mail Stop: SSOP Washington, D.C. 20402-9328, incorporated by reference and on file with the Department and the Office of the Secretary of State. This incorporation by reference contains no future editions or amendments; and
- 2. May assign an employee who volunteers for overtime before mandatory overtime is required.

B. Exemptions. The Director shall determine exemptions from minimum wage and maximum hour requirements in accordance with the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. 213, October 1998, published by the U.S. Government Printing Office, Superintendent of Documents, Mail Stop: SSOP Washington, D.C. 20402-9328, incorporated by reference and on file with the Department and the Office of the Secretary of State. This incorporation by reference contains no future editions or amendments.

C. Non-exempt employees.

- 1. An agency shall compensate an employee in a non-exempt position who works in excess of 40 hours per workweek or in excess of a work period as defined by the FLSA by either:
 - a. Additional pay at the rate of 1 1/2 times the employee's regular rate for each excess hour worked, or,
 - b. Compensatory leave at the rate of 1 1/2 hours for each excess hour worked.
- 2. An employee shall select either overtime pay or compensatory leave for overtime compensation. If the employee selects both overtime pay and compensatory leave, the agency head shall determine which applies. If an employee's compensatory leave balance reaches the maximum allowed in subsection (F), the agency shall compensate the employee by overtime pay.

D. Exempt employees.

- 1. An employee in a position that is exempt from the FLSA, except for those excluded in subsection (E), who works in excess of 40 hours per workweek or in excess of an established work period shall earn one hour of compensatory leave for each hour of overtime worked, until the employee's compensatory leave balance reaches the maximum allowed in subsection (F). When the maximum balance is reached, an agency shall not require or allow an exempt employee to work overtime.
- 2. The Director may approve overtime pay at the regular rate for positions exempt from the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. 207, September 1995, published by the U.S. Government Printing Office, Superintendent of Documents, Mail Stop: SSOP Washington, D.C. 20402-9328, incorporated by reference and on file with the Department and the Office of the Secretary of State. This incorporation by reference contains no future editions or amendments. These positions are eligible for compensatory leave because the primary duty is management when any of the following criteria is met:
 - a. The Director determines that the practice is a prevailing condition in the Arizona labor market,
 - b. Overtime pay to subordinates reduces pay differentials between subordinates and supervisors to the extent that it is no longer an incentive to remain in the supervisory position, or
 - c. Temporary emergency conditions arise that make it more practical to pay overtime than to grant compensatory leave.

E. Excluded employees.

- G. Employee request for review.
- 1. Within 3 working days of receipt of a reduction in force notice, unless a longer time is authorized by an agency head, an employee may submit a written request to the agency head for a review of the procedure resulting in the employee's transfer, reduction, or separation due to a reduction in force. The request for review shall be based upon an error, contain specific information concerning the error involved, and include a proposed resolution of the problem. The agency head shall review the request and respond to the employee within 5 working days after receipt of the request.
